

Newport Brass' Body Spray Systems Enhance the Shower Experience

Premium Decorative Bath, Shower and Kitchen Manufacturer Introduces 4 New Body Spray Products for the Shower

Santa Ana, Calif. (December 2010) – Newport Brass, a premium decorative plumbing brand, manufactured by Brasstech, Inc., has introduced four new body sprays to its line of shower hardware. As a leader in the decorative hardware industry, Newport Brass continues to launch new and innovative products that enhance the shower experience.

This new product launch offers 2 body sprays in a Traditional design and 2 body sprays in a Contemporary design. The body sprays are available in all of the 26 Newport Brass finishes, and like all Newport Brass products, the body sprays are constructed of solid brass.

Some of the key features of these body sprays include the following:

- 30° adjustable spray angle
- Easy to clean rubber spray jets
- Easy to access flow restrictor for easy maintenance
- Adjustable escutcheon for easy installation
- 1.75 GPM flow rate

Newport Brass offers its customers "Total Solutions" – diverse collections of faucet, shower, and accessory trim support by matching fittings and decorative hardware for a total shower experience. The Newport Brass guarantee on reliability is backed by a 10 year industry leading warranty, and Newport Brass' Superior Quality Finish Technology ensures that finishes will not degrade or change over time.

"Our customers want complete bathroom suites when they design or refresh their personal spaces, and we have every product available to create a sophisticated, unique look, without feeling 'matched.'" shares Director of Marketing, Margaret Goodall. "Our new and unique product choices are designed to impress professionals and consumers and provide high-quality solutions for the bath."

Body spray showers are part of the trend towards a more luxurious shower experience. Body sprays are one of the biggest indulgences in luxury bath design, but as luxury items become necessities, Newport Brass is leading the way with new product launches like the 4 new body sprays that are currently hitting the market.
